Get into the Halloween spirit with a performance of Farewell, Mr. Poe.

"In the last four days of his life, Edgar Allan Poe drifted in and out of consciousness before he died. Where did his mind wander in those final hours? Find out for yourself if you dare, as the paths wind through Poe's life and poetry, until he finally confronts his earthly departure. Recommended for audiences ages 12 years and older."

Get your tickets at the Morton Arboretum website, mortonarb.org, or contact Betty Erickson (n9yfc@aol.com) by 10/15/25.
